

AIDANSW Codes of Conduct

The following is a list of Irish Dancing Commission and AIDA Inc rules that affect registered dancers in Australia.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

All Children/young people are encouraged to be open with their Teacher and share any concerns or complaints.

It is required that all children/Young People understand and agree to the following.

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of everyone equally.
- Show respect to your Teacher during your dancing lesson.
- Bullying of children/ young people by their peers will not be tolerated
- Discrimination of any kind is unacceptable within An Coimisiun.
- Good behaviour is expected at all time, especially during class.
- No running around class venues, especially stairways.
- On entering and exiting venues, the main door must be used at all times.
- Do not leave the premises without a parent / guardian or parental permission.
- Appropriate clothes must be worn when arriving and leaving class.
- Be on time for lessons so as not to disrupt the smooth running of the lesson.
- Food or chewing gum is not permitted during lessons
- All mobile phones must be switched off during lessons.
- Work hard at your dancing in your own time at home.
- Enjoy your dancing.

PARENTS' CODE OF CONDUCT

An Coimisiun adopts a child-centred approach and philosophy in the running of classes to ensure children and young people are at all times provided with a high standard of dancing tuition.

It does this by requiring Teachers and Adjudicators who are registered with An Coimisiun to agree to uphold the organisation's philosophy and standards. Enforcement of this conduct is the responsibility of every Member and any queries about this code should be referred to the Chairperson of An Coiste Faire. (A governance body within An Coimisiun)

Parent/Guardians have an influential role to play in encouraging their children to adopt positive attitudes to maintain the ethos of An Coimisiun.

In registering with the AIDANSW, it is required that Parents/Guardians agree to the following:-

- Know the start and finish times of your child's classes. It is the Parent's/Guardian's responsibility to ensure the child arrives promptly and safely to each lesson.
- In the instance of a child having more than one lesson per day it is the Parent's/Guardian's responsibility to supervise the child/children between lessons.
- Parents/Guardians must collect their child immediately after class finishes from the venue. Children are not permitted to wait outside the venue.
- Teachers are not responsible for children /young people before between or after their class(es).
- Respect the Teacher's opinion and encourage your child to do likewise.
- Show appreciation for the Teachers and Volunteers.
- Praise good performance and effort from all individuals and groups.
- Congratulate all participants regardless of the outcome.
- Use correct and appropriate language at all times.
- Support your child's involvement and help them to enjoy their dancing experience.
- Respect the rights, dignity, diversity and worth of every child/young person regardless of their gender ability ethnic and cultural background or religion.
- Be prepared to attend support events organised y the class for your child.
- It is the Parents guardians' responsibility to inform the Teachers /Volunteers of any conditions, medical or otherwise, regarding their child.
- It is the responsibility of Parents/Guardians to ensure their child's understanding and cooperation with the Code of Conduct for Child/Young Persons.
- It is the responsibility of Parents/Guardian to check each week regarding forthcoming events or unexpected changes in classes